

05 MISSING THE FIRE

Standing at a crossroad
Missing the fire under my skin
Waiting at a crossroad
What am I heading for

The sun will always keep on burning
The sun will stay the same
Sun keeps on reminding
Continue to stray
The sun will always keep on burning
The sun will stay the same
Sun keeps on reminding
Continue to stray

If I'm heading at the sunset
Life will be easy and mostly a play
If I'm heading with the wind
I'll fly away and never come back

The sun will always keep on burning
The sun will stay the same
Sun keeps on reminding
Continue to stray
The sun will always keep on burning
The sun will stay the same
Sun keeps on reminding
Continue to stray
Continue to stray

Sun will always keep on burning
The sun will stay the same
Sun keeps on reminding
Continue to stray
The sun will always keep on burning
The sun will stay the same
Sun keeps on reminding

Missing the fire under my skin
