

07 TIME

There were so many things to say
There were so many things to do
But I just had to leave one day
And had no answers left for you

Time was all we had
Time to believe
But I just had to go
Leave eternity

Trying to feel what's in your heart
Is so much easier said than done
Was the decision in my soul
Or was it done without a clue

Time was all we had
Time to believe
But I just had to go
Leave eternity

Time will tell me what was right
Time will tell you what was wrong
Lift your head and see the stars
And find at least you're not alone

Time was all we had
Time to believe
But I just had to go
Leave eternity
