

06 TRUTH

Quiet is your room
Quiet is your thought
Whispering slowly your name

Waiting for the sign
Longing for the truth
Whisper to the girl who's locked in the room

Truth lives inside of your heart
It's life's protection
Just try to read the sign

Feeling a little hand
Grasping for some warmth
Need your attention and care

Feelings from the past
Melting in your heart
Melting like the tear that falls from the eye

Truth lives inside of your heart
It's life's protection
Just try to read the sign

Truth lives inside of your heart
It's life's protection
Just try to read the sign
